Subjective Part

Q.NO.1: Translate the following paragraph into :

1. water is another critical item for all crops. Massive amount of water is required during the growing season for cultivation. In fact, agricultural production consumes more fresh water than any other human activity. In many countries, people are facing shortage of fresh water. Competition for water resources among individuals, regions, and countries and associated human activities is already occurring with the current world population. Water resources, critical for irrigation, are under great stress as populous cities, states and countries require and withdraw more water from rivers, lakes, and aquifers every year.
2. Hazrat Muhammad's (SAW) life is a perfect model and example for the people who want to attain goodness, piety and success in their individual as well as social life. People can seek light from the message and guidance from his life to achieve perfection in the moral, spiritual and social areas of life. He has set very high and noble ideals through his practical example for all mankind to follow in every field of life.
3. I am glad that I have got a taste of what the real world has to offer. I have learned many lessons from my Public High School, boarding school, and work experiences. I am now ready to learn many more lessons through my college experiences. Although it has been tough, I have succeeded so far. I am prepared to excel and make it much further in the years to come with my college education. This developing positive outlook has given me the motivation that I need to become successful. I never give up.
4. Allah's messenger (S.A.W.W) proved by his own example that no one could be more firm for justice than him, even if it was against his own interest or the interest of those who were near and dear to him. He decided every case brought to him, by friend or foe with justice, without fear of favour. A person of such magnitude transcends the barriers of time and space. People of all ages can find something in his life to provide them with guidance in their various fields of activity.
5. Hazrat Muhammad (SAW) practically proved that no one could be more just and equitable than the messenger of Allah Almighty. As a young trader, he earned the good reputation of being an honest, fair and just business man. He always had fair and just dealings with all people. When the Ka'bah' was being constructed, there arose a dispute among the people regarding the black stone. This pleased everyone and saved them from a tribal conflict.
6. The novel “Great Expectations” was written by Charles Dickens, a famous English author. The story took place in England in the nineteenth century. The main character is called Pip. We read about his life from childhood to manhood. The story begins when Pip was a lonely orphan. He was brought up

28. Fossil energy is another prime resource used for food production. Nearly 80 percent of the world's fossil energy is being used by the developed countries. The intensive farming technologies of the developed countries use massive amounts of fossil energy for fertilizers, pesticides, irrigation, and for machines as a substitute for human labour. In developing countries, fossil energy has been used primarily for fertilizers and yields rather than to reduce human labour input. Because fossil energy is a finite resource, its depletion accelerates as population needs for food escalate thus, cost of fuel increases everywhere.
29. The third day dawned. The accusers and the surety were present at the Mosque of the Holy Prophet (SAW). They were waiting for the criminal. As time passed, Sahabah (RA) felt anxious for the fate of Hazrat Abuzar Ghaffari (RA). When only an hour remained, both the accusers come forward and demanded from Hazrat Abuzar Ghaffari (RA) their man.
30. When the whole court was in a worried state of mind, the villager reached there perspiring from head to foot. As he entered, he saluted the Caliph and said, 'Allah be praised for His mercy I was able to make my uncle trustee of the gold. As you see I am right in time, do not delay the execution.
31. Hazrat Abuzar Ghaffari (RA) : Commander of the Faithful, the man was totally a stranger to me. I had never know or seen him before. But when out of all the bystanders, he selected me as his surety I could not but agree. If he had not returned, I would have gladly laid down my life for him.
32. On hearing these words, the audience present in the court gave cries of joy and applause and the face of the Caliph beamed with pleasure as he said, "Young men, the blood money will be paid to you from the peoples' Treasury, and Allah will reward for this goodness on the Day of judgment."
33. There was a time when any student's future plans revolved around becoming a doctor, a pilot or an engineer. These few disciplines were thought to be the only fields that could offer rewarding careers in terms of both respect and money. Resultantly, students were unaware of other opportunities that could, perhaps, have been more advantageous.

Moreover, football, hockey, cricket, tennis, badminton and table tennis are among the favorite organized games in schools. All such sports and games certainly benefit both mind and body. They create cheerfulness, discipline, fellowship, confidence and physical fitness.

2- My House

A house, you know, is an important necessity. The quality of life improves when you have a house of your own. It gives you an opportunity to turn some of your dreams into reality. You decorate your rooms according to your taste. You look after your plants and flowers with a loving care.

I live in a small house not far from my school. The house is almost new. It is a little way back from the road, and in front of it there is a small garden. A path leads from the gate to the porch. A corner of the porch is evergreen with a lovely creeper that remains in brilliant Bloom round the year.

Downstairs there is a lounge, which is a general living room with television. This room is used as a reception room for guests. There is a dining room and a kitchen. The drawing room with a large window faces the front lawn. Upstairs are the bedrooms and the children's rooms. The rooms of my house are not large. The largest room is the lounge. It has Windows on both ends for proper light and ventilation.

My father and I love to work in the garden. We prune the bushes once a year and in summer we get our fruit-trees sprayed every month. My mother loves roses and supring flowers and looks after flower beds herself from time to time. I take care to keep the front lawn tidy enough by using a lawnmover. One's own house is a blessing indeed.

3- Courtesy

Courtesy means excellence of manner are polite behavior. It, of course, springs from good breeding and kindness of heart. A courteous man is pleasant and polite to everybody. He absorves good manner on all occasions and always respects the feelings of others.

When people meet, they greet one another saying 'good morning' or 'good evening' according to the time of the day. Muslims great one another, saying 'Asslam-o- Alaikum', and they often ask about one another's health and well being. A Muslim greeting is a kind of wish, a prayer for mutual happiness, peace and security. The Holy Quran lays much stress on this form of greeting in Sura Al Noor verse 61: If you know to persons who happen to be strangers, it is your duty to introduce them to each other. If both are men, you introduce the younger to the older: "please meet my elder brother...." If both are women, but one married and the other single. You introduce the latter to the former. If one is a man and the other a woman, it goes without saying that you introduce the man to the women, and not the other way round. You pronounce both names clearly if they are males and two persons shake hands, saying "how do you do?"

Good manners demand that you make no attempt to jump the queue . In a crowded bus, if you are physically fit, you give up your seat to an elderly person or to someone who is blind, disabled are sick . You have to say ' Thank you' to those who are good to you. Courtesy really makes everyday life more pleasant, more friendly and more meaningful.

4- Librarians

With the spread of literacy ,libraries have become essential tools for learning. Public instruction is making rapid progress everywhere in Pakistan .It is no more the privilege of the well-to-do only to acquire knowledge as it was not so very long ago. There are schools and colleges in almost every part of the country. The twenty-first century dawns with a sure promise to be a century of peace and educational explosion.

Naturally ,when there is thirst for knowledge , there is also an ever increasing demand for books and magazines. Everybody does not have the means to buy books of all sorts. Mass education programme is bound to suffer adversely if there are no free libraries for students.

Our school libraries are not functioning properly .There are practically no reading or borrowing facilities .There is no whole time staff for libraries. Above all , there is no incentive to read general books or fiction. The few books that may be there in the dusty old almira's stink awfully. This is mainly so for want of fresh air in the stuffy, locked cupboards .More often the books are just old titles ,moth-eaten and worn out.

Libraries obviously play an important role in creating a genuine love of books and interest in current affairs. Their reading rooms promote a spirit of discipline ,research , enquiry and fellowship. Libraries with a variety of attractive titles have healthy and beneficial effect on the eager minds of students.

5- Health

“Health is wealth” is a well known proverb often quoted by our parents and teachers. When people meet ,they usually ask one another “How are you?”, “How are you getting along?”

Health is precious and certainly a great blessing of Allah Almighty. Hygienic environment ,personal cleanliness ,wholesome food and a regular way of life are conducive to health. Early to bed and early to rise ,meals at regular times, recreation and rest and sure to make a man healthy ,wealthy and wise. Young people ,who have plenty of energy ,need to take vigorous athletic exercises in the fresh open air.

In case we are run down ,overworked or dreadfully sick we consult a good doctor .He gives us a tonic or prescribes a special diet. “You are working too hard ,” he may say , “that’s what the trouble is. You cannot go on burning the candle at both ends.”

Sometimes staying at one place ,year in and year out ,tends to make us weary and stale. It is a signal that what we need is a complete change in our environment. If we go to some other place on the hills or in the countryside , it does us a world of good. Change and fresh air are better than all the tonics in the world. Eating out is generally avoided by health conscious men and women. Home-made meals are the safest and the best in the world.
